

SILBERSTEIN, AWAD & MIKLOS

Silberstein, Awad & Miklos has represented families in New York in cases involving every type of imaginable medical malpractice for over 30 years. They have helped find the answers to the most troubling medical questions and difficult legal issues. Their passion and expertise have helped to compensate their clients for the harms and losses they have endured. They have achieved multimillion dollar recoveries and record verdicts in cases such as the failure to diagnose cancer, birth injury, and medical errors resulting in blindness. The commitment to their client's case goes beyond the ordinary and has led them to advocate in the appellate courts of this state in matters of evidence, jurors, damages and civil procedure. They have even taken their fight to the Court of Appeals, the highest court in New York State.

Joseph Awad and Joseph Miklos and colleagues devote enormous amounts of time and resources to each case. Should your case go to trial, their firm will be armed with the latest in technology and trial presentation applications. Their approach to trial using multimedia and a multifaceted presentation has generated impressive results. The community and the client both benefit from the efforts and results of Silberstein, Awad & Miklos.

Professional achievements, activities and recognitions are the hallmark of their service. Mr. Awad is a past-President of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association, Governor of the American Association for Justice, and has served on the New York State Governor's medical malpractice liability task force. Mr. Miklos is past-President of the Long Island Affiliate of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association and is also on the Board of Directors of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.
