

SILBERSTEIN, AWAD & MIKLOS, P.C.

Over its more than 30-year history, Silberstein, Awad & Miklos has prosecuted thousands of medical malpractice and personal injury cases and argued nearly 90 matters before New York State's Appellate Courts. In the process, the firm has acquired a breadth of experience that sets it apart from other New York personal injury firms. "Experience counts," Joseph Awad notes. "I can't think of a medical malpractice claim that we haven't encountered over the years, and that gives us a solid foundation for success on each new matter we prosecute."

Awad, who comes from a blue-collar family, and his partner Joseph Miklos, who hails from the South Bronx, are recognized leaders in their field: both have been AV® Preeminent™ rated by Martindale-Hubbell® and selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America®, U.S. News-Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms," and New York Super Lawyers®. Together, they lead an accomplished team that includes an attorney-physician, attorney-nurse, attorney-pharmacist, an in-house board-certified physician, a registered nurse, and experienced trial attorneys. In addition, Awad notes, "We have access to some of the finest medical minds to evaluate our clients' cases, and that includes an approach to all personal injury matters, not only medical malpractice claims."

Beyond their legal work, Awad and Miklos share a dedication to improving the legal profession and the local community. Awad is a past-President of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association and served as a Governor of the American Association for Justice. Miklos, meanwhile, is a past-President of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association's Long Island Affiliate and sits on NYSTLA's Board of Directors. "By serving in these positions, you're devoting yourself to the overall civil justice agenda, and your peers have to count on you a great deal to entrust you with that," Awad says.

Through its community service efforts, Silberstein, Awad & Miklos has promoted jury service participation and voter registration. The firm also sponsors after-school programs for children, and several of its attorneys volunteer their time to assist with SAT review classes for underprivileged students. In addition, the firm strives to benefit the New York community through its legal work: "We always try to identify why an individual case matters to the community," Awad says. "And in many cases, private lawsuits brought by individual citizens have changed the management of the clinical practice of medicine."
