

SILBERSTEIN, AWAD & MIKLOS, PC

Joseph Miklos and Joseph Awad

Silberstein, Awad & Miklos has been representing families in the New York metropolitan area in cases involving every type of imaginable personal injury for over 30 years. Their passion, experience, and expertise have allowed them to achieve record recoveries and verdicts, in addition to peer recognition. Their commitment to a client's case goes beyond the ordinary, involving the devotion of enormous amounts of time and resources to each client's case. Their professional achievements, activities, and recognitions are the hallmark of their service, with Mr. Awad as a past-President of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association and Governor of the American Association for Justice, and Mr. Miklos as past-President of the Long Island Affiliate of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association and member of the Board of Directors of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

The firm's partners take a particular interest in serving the local communities throughout New York City and Long Island. They are most proud of the charitable services they provide to local community-based organizations, churches, schools and athletic leagues. The firm and its partners devote significant amounts of time and money to serving the Dominican and Latino community in Queens

County, involving teaching, volunteer work, and programs for school-age children. They are recognized for their philanthropic leadership and are the recipients of volunteer service awards. Mr. Awad currently serves as President of the Board of Directors of the Dominican-American Society of Queens.

Other philanthropic services involve retributions and volunteer work in community-based organizations in the Bronx and on Long Island. The partners and their firm believe that it is very important for trial lawyers to dedicate time and money to the advancement of children through education, to the registry of citizens to vote, and to encouraging all citizens in the community to participate in jury service. Mr. Awad has been recognized for his efforts on behalf of the Civil Justice System leaders in the Black and Puerto Rican communities. He and Mr. Miklos have been recognized by national groups for their dedication to equality and diversity in the Judicial System.

Both Mr. Awad and Mr. Miklos are very active trial attorneys, providing their clients with the latest in technology and trial presentation applications. Their approach to trial using multimedia and multifaceted presentation has generated impressive results, including National record verdicts in medical malpractice and record recoveries in construction site accidents and other types of negligence cases.

TESTIMONIAL:

This firm was willing to think outside the box and apply aggressive trial technique. But for their perseverance and dedication, this result would not have been possible." —C.G.
