Extraordinary hard work
and exceptional experience bring benefits to clients.

THE TRIAL LAWYERS AT SILBERSTEIN, AWAD & MIKLOS, under the leadership of Joseph Awad and Joseph Miklos, have successfully prosecuted thousands of personal injury cases for more than 30 years. They offer their clients the benefits of exceptional experience and extraordinary hard work. While every case is dependent on the facts and the law, Awad and Miklos have achieved record recoveries in litigation involving cancer, blindness, and brain, spinal and amputation injuries.

The firm employs a team approach for each client, assigning a specific experienced trial lawyer and paralegal, whom clients can access easily. The assigned trial lawyer and paralegal work with a senior partner, an appellate lawyer, a nurse and experts.

The firm's mission is to ensure that each client receives a fair and level playing field when taking on big business, the health industry and mammoth insurance corporations. Awad comes from a blue-collar family, and Miklos hails from South Bronx, giving them each a gritty approach to tackling big business. Both lawyers have been the recipients of academic scholarships and peer-review awards. Their concern for equal justice is founded on the merits of their clients' causes and stems from their life experiences.

Awad is past president of the New York State Trial Lawyers Association and continues as governor of the American Association for Justice.
